Monthly ridership figures are preliminary and subject to revision on a quarterly basis.

January 2015:	21 Weekdays	5 Saturdays	5 Sundays
January 2016:	20 Weekdays	5 Saturdays	6 Sundays

Total Sound Transit ridership increased by 65K, or 2.4%, compared to January 2015, and system-wide average weekday boardings increased by 8K, or 7.6%. One fewer weekday in January 2016 resulted in modest growth across all modes. In addition, fewer Seahawks playoff games this year impacted average Saturday and Sunday boardings.

ST Express ridership decreased by 27K, or 1.9%; however, average weekday boardings increased by 2K, or 2.4%, meaning that the decline in total ridership is due to one fewer weekday. At the route level, ridership on Route 550 (Bellevue – Seattle) increased by about 4% and continued to average over 10,000 weekday riders.

Sounder ridership was up 19K, or 6.1%, compared to January 2015, while Sounder average weekday boardings were up 16% and reached an all-time high of 16,000 boardings per weekday. This record was set despite one fewer weekday and two days of cancellations due mudslides on the North Line.

Tacoma Link ridership decreased by 6K, or 7.4%, compared to January 2015, and average weekday boardings were down by 3.7%. The January ridership decline during the month is likely due to one less weekday. There were also fewer events in the service area.

Link ridership was up 80K, or 9.7%, compared to the same period last year, and average weekday boardings were up 15.6%, to almost 35K boardings per weekday. The increased peak frequencies on Link support increased ridership by providing more opportunities to customers in advance of University Link.

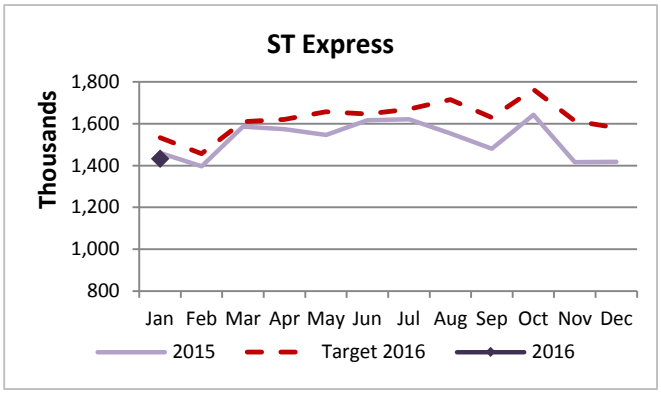

Paratransit services, provided by King County Metro, decreased by 19.1% compared to January 2015, driven by changes in eligibility that were implemented in 2015.

Monthly Ridership Trends by Mode

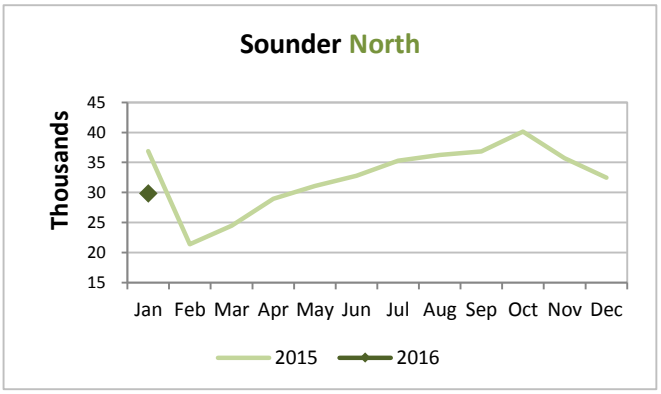

ST Express ridership decreased 1.9% compared to January 2015; however, average weekday boardings increased by 2.4%. Growth was tempered by one less weekday and fewer Seahawks home playoff games.

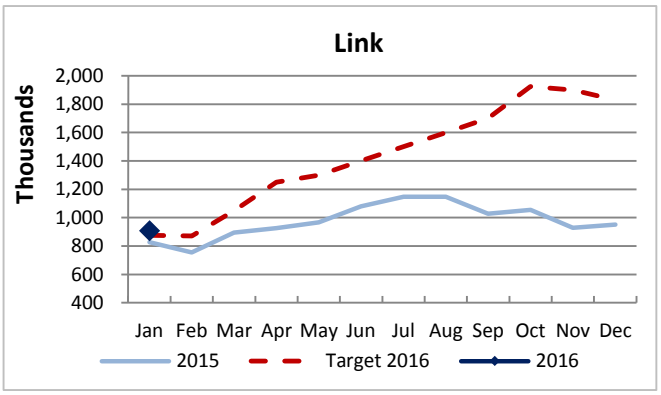

Sounder system-wide ridership increased by 6.1% compared to January 2015, with a 16% increase in average weekday boardings. The growth in weekday boardings offset the drop in weekend boardings related to fewer Seahawks home playoff games.

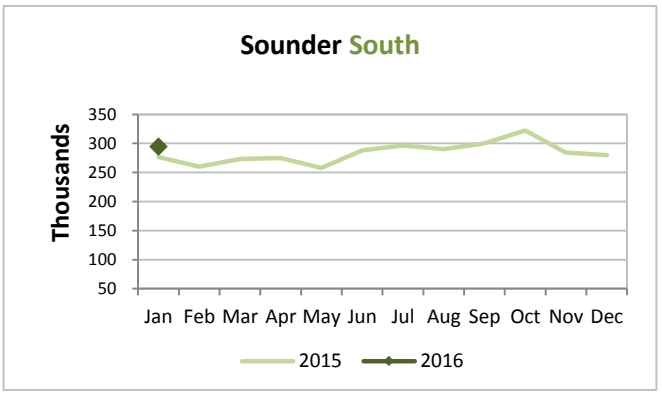

Tacoma Link ridership decreased by 7.4% compared to January 2015, and average weekday boardings decreased by 3.7%.

Sounder North ridership was down 9% compared to January 2015, due in part to one less weekday this year, fewer event trains, and two days of service cancellations due to mudslides.

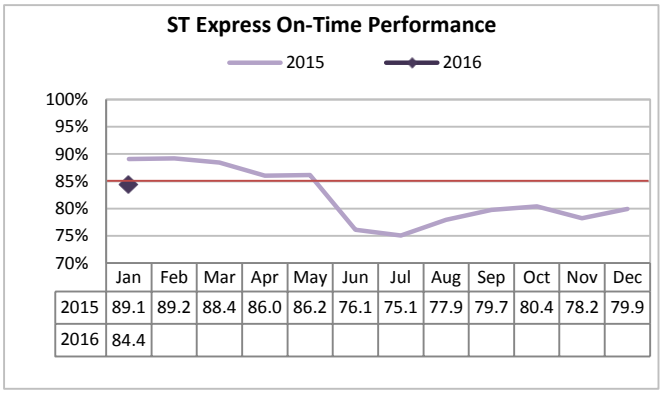

Link ridership was up 9.7% compared to January 2015, with a 15.6% increase in average weekday boardings.

Sounder South ridership grew by 8% compared to January 2015, despite one less weekday and fewer weekend event trains.

2015	97.9	98.7	97.2	95.0	96.6	96.3	97.3	98.2	97.2	93.8	93.5	92.2
2016	94.3

Target: 95.0% January 2016: 94.3% YTD 2016: 94.3%

Sounder experienced an elevated number of delays in January for the fourth straight month, mostly due to freight interference, mudslides, and Tukwila Station construction.

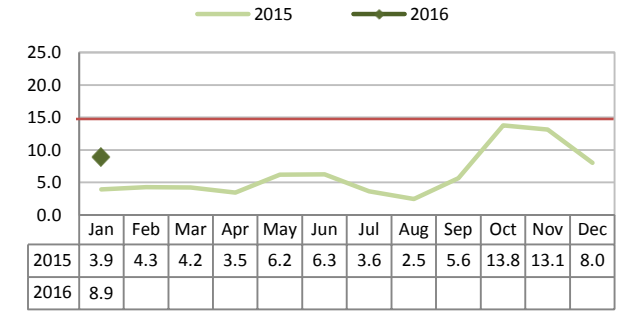

Sounder Farebox Recovery

Target: 25.3% January 2016: 31.6% Rolling 12-Mo: 29.9%

Sounder continued to experience strong farebox recovery in January, driven by healthy ridership gains in the South corridor, and the timing of financial charges.

Sounder Complaints per 100K Boardings

	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
2015	3.9	4.3	4.2	3.5	6.2	6.3	3.6	2.5	5.6	13.8	13.1	8.0
2016	8.9

Target: <15 January 2016: 8.9 YTD 2016: 8.9

Sounder performed within the targeted range for customer complaints per 100K boardings in January, but delays and mudslides caused a decline in performance compared to last year.

Sounder Passengers per Trip
